LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN STATES

The North Carolina Election

NEW YORK, August 6 —Specials from Raleigh [illegible] the State to the Republicans [illegible] August —Specials and private advices make it certain that Caldwell Republican carried the State by 1 000 majority

NEW YORK, August Both parties still claim North Carolina

The [illegible] figures Merriman's majority at [illegible]

A World special says that Caldwell gains in the same ratio in the counties to be heard from he is elected by a small majority

A World dispatch says it will take the official vote to decide

Phillips Chairman of the Republican State committee figures Caldwell's majority at 1 [illegible]. The Republicans elect Cobb Thomas and Smith to Congress

Tornado at Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (Pa) August 6 —A terrible tornado visited here last night Many buildings were injured and hundreds of trees blown down

Boston "Liberals"

BOSTON August 6 —The Liberal Republican State Central Committee have issued an address to the people of Massachusetts reviewing the political situation and justifying their support of Greeley

Germany Tries to Check Emigration

NEW YORK August 6 —Next to the expulsion of the Jesuits the subject most discussed in Germany now is the necessity for reducing the flow of emigration to the United States The vast increase of emigration this year seems to have aroused the Government to a realization of its loss Laws have been passed visiting punishment for evasion of military duty with a penalty of 50 to 1 000 thalers and imprisonment for one month to one year

CANADA

The Way They Do It in Canada.

QUEBEC August 5 —A dispatch says that at the general elections for the Center and West divisions yesterday the Cauchon men in Center took possession of the polls and commenced fearful excesses The Ross men banded together to repel their attacks but were too weak for their assailants, who were 2 500 strong and armed with revolvers A fearful encounter took place at the foot of Eustache street Several lives were lost, while the wounded are numberless The Dominion artillery had to be called out, as well as the armed provincial police The polls being taken possession of no fair returns could be made but Cauchon, the French Canadian candidate is declared returned The English speaking population, it would seem, are to be exterminated by the French, according to the statements of the leaders of the French party It is feared that more blood will be shed as the Diamond Harbor boys are going up town to avenge the death of their men

TORONTO August 6 —Anson G P Dodge has been returned to Parliament for the constituency of North York

MEXICO

MATAMORAS, August 6 —General Trevino accepts amnesty if the Government will remove Corsalyia and become responsible for his revolutionary acts

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Cuban Insurrection

MADRID August 5 —The Imparcial, speaking of the Cuban insurrection says that over 13,000 rebels have been killed, and 70,000 have surrendered to the Spanish authorities Ten thousand horses, 5 000 arms and 3 000 swords have been captured

From Geneva

NEW YORK, August 6 —A special from Geneva says that as arbitration progresses the probabilities of an increase of verdict seem to be against England and that it will be a form of a declaration of her general responsibility for the acts of Confederate cruisers and award of gross amount of damages There is reason to believe that the case of the Georgia is the weakest, and it has been practically abandoned The case of the Shenandoah has been pressed closely, and an indemnity for loss of whaling fleets has been specially urged The discussion proceeds farther than was generally expected English counsel give particulars with emphasis, and state in argument that the Tribunal under the Treaty of Washington has no right to examine into the conduct of England in the execution of her municipal law They maintain that no nation is responsible to another for its internal administration

From London

LONDON August 6 —The reports that Lord Hatherly has resigned the High Chancellorship are premature

The American fleet will proceed from Cowes to Gravesend and from Gravesend to the north where it will remain during the winter, returning to the English Channel in the spring

Minister Schenck will soon give a ball at which officers of the fleet and Stanley will be present

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO August 6 —Col A W Von Schmidt having been awarded the contract for running the boundary line between California and Nevada, from the Oregon line to the Colorado river will commence operations next week He expects to complete the work from the Oregon line to Lake Tahoe this season The amount to be paid him under the contract is $42,500 in greenbacks

The Tu La Mar a Japanese merchant vessel the first ever visiting the United States is expected here within a few days with an assorted cargo from Hongkong

An extensive cheese factory and one for the manufacture of imitation ivory are among the improvements projected for San Francisco and vicinity for the establishment of which companies are now being formed

A company is also being projected to search for the treasure to a vast extent, said to have been buried by a French colony from Louisiana which settled in New Mexico some hundreds of years ago The colony is reported to have been broken up by an earthquake which caused the river on the banks of which it dwelt, to overflow at its source and dry up and after burying the treasure which it had accumulated to the extent of millions of dollars it nearly all perished in the attempt to return to Louisiana The diagram of the place where it was buried, and the full details of the story is said to have been found by a frontiersman among the Yuma Indians on the Colorado, who is to guide the expedition

The boy Sampson, who killed Wilson on the Barbary coast last week, was this morning committed for trial on the charge of murder

Since the adjournment of the mining stock board there is a stir in Imperial on the street which indicates a coming rise in that stock

Stock in the new diamond company does not sell rapidly

Many persons who know the miner who is to guide the expedition do not place implicit confidence in his statement concerning the alleged discoveries and the excitement is very rapidly subsiding

UTAH

The Election

SALT LAKE August 6 —It is thought Maxwell for delegate has received about 4 500 votes in the Territory which the Tribune believes is a majority of all the legal votes cast as a large proportion of Mormons are neither native nor naturalized

The Liberal press asserts without contradiction that the school of the prophets, by direction of Brigham Young instigated and assisted the outrages on Saturday night

The election has passed off peaceably throughout all parts Small squads of the Nauvoo legion rode about the streets, but otherwise there was no improper demonstration The Mormon candidate was elected Maxwell, however received a handsome vote and will contest the seat For the first time Gentile ladies voted in Utah, Only one of them was challenged (Mrs [illegible]) and her ballot was afterwards received

NEVADA.

Suicide at Unionville

UNIONVILLE Nev August 6 —Yesterday afternoon a laborer named Shipley from Tennessee committed suicide by taking twenty grains of strychnine The usual antidotes were administered but ineffectually An impaired condition of mind was the cause

SAN RAFAEL, August 6 —Yesterday a Spaniard named Augustine Valencia, shot at and slightly wounded a man named Anthony Dunkin The assailant, together with his brother, were arrested and locked up Woman was the cause of the difficulty

POLITICAL NOTES

Mr Greeley's proposition to pay $400,000 000 to the masters of the emancipated slaves, meets with no greater favor than his other proposition to pension the wounded rebel soldiers

A Maine paper says that among the largest accessions that the Republican party of Maine will receive during the present canvass will be those shipbuilders who have at times acted with the Democratic party

Seventy Democratic Irishmen in St Paul (Minn) have formed a Grant club They will have nothing to do with the mongrel ticket for which their leaders ask them to vote Similar revolts are occurring all over the country

The Prairie du Chien (Wis) Courier a Democratic journal, is to be added to those who refuse to advocate the election of Greeley The editor says that he knows there are over 500 of his readers in Crawford county, Wisconsin, alone who will not vote for Greeley

A P Edgarton, of Ohio, formerly Democratic member of Congress, says that it would be impossible for an Democrat to vote for Greeley who had that regard for political consistency which every honest man should entertain For that reason, he said he should not do so

In the course of his intrigue with Seymour for the Democratic nomination, Greeley doubted whether Congress would pass a law pensioning rebel soldiers A Republican Congress would not, but the Democrats expect, with Greeley to elect a Democratic Congress Such a Congress might pass such a law

A New Yorker just returned from a Southern tour says the secret of Southern enthusiasm for Greeley is the confident belief of the people that they will get paid for their emancipated slaves if he is elected Horace, they say, is in favor of justice being done them, and justice they understand to be the price of their lost chattels

Says Mr Samuel Bowles in the Springfield Republican to Mr Murat Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial "Mr Halstead obligingly tells the friends of Mr Greeley what they ought to do next They should 'flood' the Southern States with eloquent colored Liberals, putting at least a hundred of them in every State and keeping them there until November We would suggest to Mr Halstead the advisability—not to say necessity—of first catching the eloquent colored Liberals Perhaps they are plentier, though in his vicinity than in the coasts of Massachusetts"

Mrs Howard's princely residence, Chateau de Beauregard, near Versailles, for which the Emperor Napoleon gave $1,000,000 has just been sold for $120 000; it was bought by a German banker established in Paris

For Grant and Wilson

The Enterprise, organ of the workingmen's organizations in San Francisco, has taken down the names of Greeley and Brown and run up those of Grant and Wilson We quote the following from that paper

Since the publication of General Wilson's letter wonderful changes have taken place among the toiling masses. This might have been expected Grant and Wilson have proved themselves the ardent friends of the laboring men, as shown by their recorded acts, against the combined power of wealth, they have dared to protect the mechanics and laborers in eight hours and full wages. Greeley is silent upon the subject This is not all, he declares himself in favor of Chinese suffrage. If there was no other objection to him, this with the laboring men of our State is unsurmountable No man who labors for a living can vote in favor of Chinese cheap labor, and much less can they vote that "John" shall be his equal at the polls For this reason we have drawn our political sword and thrown away the scabbard until after the election. We are the sworn enemy of Horace Greeley on the Chinese question, and will give him the best fight that pen and paper can make.

Opposition to Greeley in the South.

The Camden (Ala) News refuses to support Greeley It says

Mr Greeley has forced the Democratic party, or a large majority of it into his support He has intimated that unless he was nominated at Baltimore he would withdraw and give his support to the man whom we desired to defeat. He has effected his purpose though at a serious cost to the South We oppose him from principle. We are conscientious in our opposition to him. We have not the faith to believe that our country will be relieved by his election He is not liberal toward the South—he never was He was an earnest advocate of the notorious Ku Klux bill before Congress and urged its enforcement in the South even before it became a law To him, then, more than any other man, are we indebted for its practical operations in the South to-day. He has been a life long enemy to our section—his hatred to it knows no bounds He was a supporter of every oppressive measure against it, passed by Congress as his past political record will abundantly prove For these, and other reasons we shall continue to oppose his election, feeling satisfied that we are but doing a simple act of justice to our people and section

WEDNESDAY MORNING AUGUST 7 1872

The Republican Party and the Colored Vote

It greatly pains the [illegible] Herald to learn that the Republican party expects to have the aid of the colored vote of the country. That paper in common with all others who have heretofore abused [illegible] and oppressed the colored race [illegible] with those who have recently [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] equal right and [illegible] with Horace [illegible] the Democratic party thinks it [illegible] for colored voters to stand by the party that made them free and always protected them against Democratic hatred and violence. It even intimates that the only way for them to preserve the rights and franchises which have been given them is by throwing their votes for the party which has always oppressed them. But inasmuch as these rights and franchises were given them for their protection in spite of Democratic opposition it may be deemed very certain that they will be retained and defended in spite of the Democratic effort to take them away as a penalty for not voting the Democratic ticket.

The Herald thinks that the blacks are sadly lacking in intelligence virtue and morality, and taunts the Republican party with relying on the votes of such a class to carry the Southern States. At the same time it admits that its own party is making strenuous efforts to get a portion of the colored vote. It says that "intelligent white men are trying to allay prejudices, are appealing to the good sense of the colored race, and endeavoring to convince them that their interests do not lie in an exclusive colored organization —in short that they should cast their fortunes with the Democratic party and rely on that organization to do justice to the colored race.

Perhaps, however, the colored man's distrust of the Democratic party is something more than a "prejudice." It is clearly a sign of intelligence, rather than of ignorance. He knows that the Democratic party has been at all times his unrelenting enemy and cruel oppressor. He knows that his freedom was gained over the fiercest opposition which that party could make. He knows that the Democratic party fought at every step the whole series of rights and franchises which have been conferred upon him. Nor has he forgotten that, up to this time that party has steadily avowed its purpose to take those rights away. When, therefore, he now sees it creeping toward him in a garb of hypocritical friendship, ineffectually masking its inward hostility to his rights, he shows at once his intelligence and good sense by standing on his guard. He is not a classical scholar but he distrusts "gift-bearing Greeks" as shrewdly as any man who ever read Virgil in the original tongue.

It is no shame to the Republican party that its chief strength in the Southern States is the colored vote. If Democracy thinks so poorly of this class of voters, let it be consistent enough to cease its efforts to gain them over. Let it make no more insidious appeals to them through such men as Greeley and Sumner, who, gangrened with hatred of Grant, are willing to jeopard the rights of the colored race in the hope to defeat him. There are many white Republicans in the South, as the North Carolina election shows. Fully thirty thousand whites must have voted the Republican ticket in that State. There would be many more Republican whites in that and other Southern States, had it not been for the rancor of Democratic proscription, which has always been manifested there. Until since the war, no Republican was permitted to live in the South. To avow sympathy in that section with the Republican party was to invite suspension by the neck from the nearest tree. Democracy thought this very proper, and labored to perpetuate the system and policy under which it was practised. The party which did these things now has the impudence to accuse its opponents of "intolerance," and of "ministering to prejudice," because they warn the people, white and colored, that such a party as the so-called Democracy have been, cannot now be trusted on their unsupported professions that their proscriptive nature has undergone a sudden and miraculous change and that they will repeat their old practises no more.

If the OREGONIAN has ever asserted that "a majority of the intelligence virtue morality and property of the country are with the Republican party," it has stated nothing more than it can prove by the life-long testimony of the present Democratic candidate for the Presidency. But the OREGONIAN has not been in the habit of making boasts of this sort, since it is well aware that no party possesses more virtue than it should. It has not been in the habit of saying as Mr Greeley has, that the Democratic party owes its strength to the "lewd, ruffianly criminal and dangerous classes" who go with that party from "instinct" and are attached to it by a "purely selfish interest." The Herald may sneer at the Southern blacks and contemn them how it will, but if we are to believe its "honest" candidate for President there is far more virtue and moral worth among them than there is among the "slums" who pile up the sixty or seventy thousand Democratic majority in New York City.

In the course of its article the Herald exclaims "Poor humbled crest-fallen Radicalism! See what the drubbing in North Carolina has done for it." We advise our neighbor to study the dispatches of to-day which show that North Carolina has gone Republican, and for the future not to be quite so precipitate in getting out his barn yard poultry and preaching double-leaded sermons over the supposed downfall of the Republican party.

A disgusting mess of ribaldry against citizens of foreign birth is printed in the Herald and attributed to Senator Wilson. The Herald did not invent this stuff but some one of its co-laborers in journalistic calumny at the East did. A few days ago Mr Wilson's attention was called to it and in a letter he said "Never have I thought or spoken or written those words, or anything resembling anything that the most malignant could torture into such words." Perhaps the denial was unnecessary since nine persons out of ten would see at once that they were partisan calumny.

That cock that crowed in the Herald on Saturday morning over the result in North Carolina is a whipped bantam and [illegible] fallen and be-drabbled quits the [illegible] and seeks a friendly hiding place. His plumage is plucked and his spirit broken. And the cock that crowed in the morn [illegible] away all tattered and torn.

Speaking of the result in North Carolina and assuming a Democratic victory the Herald said "We have rarely seen a more remarkable instance of humbled pride than that exhibited by the OREGONIAN. Humbled pride is it? Whose pride is humbled now?

An Article from the Herald

We make the following article from the [illegible] Herald the subject of some remark which we print elsewhere in this issue. We give the Herald article entire in order that our own remarks may be perfectly understood and that the Herald may have no chance to complain that its position is [illegible] represented.

We [illegible] time of [illegible] the [illegible] by the [illegible] [illegible] that the [illegible] that the [illegible] party [illegible] and that that party based its success upon the [illegible] important facts. Now [illegible] since the North Carolina election [illegible] acknowledges that it does not look for success in these Southern States where the whites constitute a majority of the people but claim that in these States where the colored vote is in the ascendant there is every probability that Grant will be successful. It degrades itself and lowers its once proud crest by ministering to a prejudice which it supposes to exist between the blacks and their former masters and bases its hopes not upon the good sense of the blacks but upon his [illegible] prejudice. Poor humbled crest-fallen Radicalism. See what the drubbing in North Carolina has done for it. It bases its hopes now not on the white race but upon the blacks. While patriotic and intelligent white men are trying to allay prejudice and are appealing to the good sense of the colored race while the honorable white men of the country are endeavoring to give the experiment of negro suffrage a fair trial and are attempting to convince the negroes that their interests do not lie in an exclusive colored organization, but that they should act the patriotic part of good citizens, without regard to color the Radical press tries to cultivate hatred and ill will and seeks to engender exclusiveness and strife. Are such men the friends of the negro? For shame. O, for shame!

How Recruits are Claimed for Greeley

Senator Ferry of Connecticut has been claimed for Greeley. It is asserted that his absence from the great Republican ratification meeting at New Haven a few evenings ago was due to his opposition to Grant. In a letter to the Norwalk (Conn.) Gazette Senator Ferry thus corrects this statement

You ask if there is any significance in my absence from the ratification meeting at New Haven the other day. Of course not. You know that I am seeking the more perfect re-establishment of my health by absolute rest and quiet during the summer months. I was invited a week beforehand by telegraph, to speak at New Haven. I replied by telegraph also, that I could not. By some mistake however, I was announced to speak and hence the disappointment. I support the Grant and Wilson ticket. Before it was made I had expressed my opinion of Mr Greeley as a candidate. I have not changed it. By November it will be found the opinion of the country has settled in the same direction. Make your mind easy about Connecticut. The State will give to General Grant, under present circumstances a larger majority than it did four years ago.

The Earthquake at Antioch

The Manchester (Eng.) Guardian publishes a statement by an eye witness Thomas Thornbar, relative to the loss of life and property by the recent earthquake at Antioch. We quote

Of 3 003 houses 1 960 were totally destroyed and 894 damaged. Of 1 183 shops and warehouses 734 were totally destroyed, and 100 damaged. Eight hundred dead had been extricated from the ruins, and more were being found daily. The number of maimed was unknown. Two persons were found alive after having been buried beneath the rubbish eight days. One died immediately after being extricated, but the other, a girl, was alive, and there were hopes of her recovery. Six hundred and nineteen houses were destroyed and 68 persons killed and maimed in villages between Antioch and Alexandretta. Two thousand one hundred houses were destroyed and 440 persons killed and maimed at Suadia and the surrounding villages.

In his newspaper controversy with Speaker Blaine Senator Sumner loses his temper. He tries to make a point for Greeley by saying that Toombs Stephens and Wise oppose him. He might have added that they also refuse to support Grant. Sumner is catching it roundly from Blaine, Garrison and others, who perceive the true cause of his hostility to Grant.

Assuming a Democratic victory in North Carolina the Herald exclaimed "Carry the news to Hiram!" That paper may consider itself deputized to carry the news to Horace.

There are published in the United States twenty six newspapers in the Scandinavian language. Every one of these support Grant and Wilson.

Can't the Herald get another "private dispatch" about the North Carolina election, assuring the faithful of twenty thousand majority?

On Monday Democracy got cleaned out in Louisville, where they usually have two thousand majority.

Republicans gain a Congressman in North Carolina.

SAD OCCURRENCE AT OREGON CITY

OREGON CITY Aug 6 1872

To the EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Sir. One of the saddest occurrences that ever happened in any community occurred in Oregon City on Monday 5th inst. Arthur Charman son of Thomas Charman Esq merchant and late Mayor of the city a fine noble youth between 18 and 19 years of age between 3 and 4 P. M. left his father's store in which he had been occupied all the day for the purpose of bathing, as was his custom nearly every day. He proceeded to the old P. T. Co's wharf and choosing a spot just above where the steamboat E. N. Cooke lies moored divested himself of his clothes and plunged in for a swim. Some little boys were already at the same spot bathing and it appears had a life preserver amongst them. Young Charman in sport took the life preserver and though an excellent swimmer himself, pushed out into the stream with it. Shortly afterwards the little boys saw him appeared to be plunging about on the surface of the water, playing as they thought but his head and face were beneath the surface and the life preserver had slipped beneath his arm pits. By [illegible] the boys saw him sink down and for the first time, thought there was something wrong. They hastily dressed and instead of alarming the people on the steamboats (the Senator was lying immediately astern of the Cooke) they ran up the street and gave the alarm at his father's store. Mr George Harding, of the Barnum Saloon, and a hundred others ran down to the spot immediately. George H. in a few seconds plunged in to search for the body. His first attempt was unsuccessful but diving a second time he succeeded in bringing the body to the surface and it was immediately taken into the boat and conveyed on board the E. N. Cooke and every effort that could be made was made to resuscitate the poor boy under the supervision of Dr Barclay but the vital spark had fled and all effort was in vain though continued for more than an hour. It is supposed that from the time the boys saw him sink to the time he was brought to the surface by Mr Harding at least twenty minutes had elapsed, which of course precluded any hope of resuscitation. Oregon City is a saddened community. Arthur was beloved by all who knew him. Just entering into manhood with every prospect bright before him it is a lesson to all how unstable is human existence. His parents have the deepest sympathy it is possible to receive from neighbors and friends.

Choice Reading

All [illegible] who during the [illegible] to [illegible] the Government would [illegible] read the report of the [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] State [illegible] [illegible] in the Northern States [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] Government and [illegible] Mr Judge [illegible] of the [illegible] December 1864. We [illegible] the [illegible] that portion [illegible] Portsmouth [illegible] an insurrection in the North.

Upon my arrival here I heard that there was such an organization as the Order of the Sons of Liberty in the Northern States and my first effort was to learn its strength, its principles and its objects and if possible to put myself in communication with its leading spirits. This was effected without much difficulty or delay. I was received among them with cordiality and the greatest confidence at once extended to me. The number of its members was large but not so great as Mr Holt in his official report represented it to be. Its objects were political; its principles were that the Government was based on the consent of the parties to it; that the States were the parties and were sovereign; that there was no authority in the General Government to coerce a seceding State. The resolutions of 1798 and 1799 were set forth as presenting the true theory of the Government. Its organization was essentially military; it had its commanders of divisions, of brigades, of regiments, of companies.

In the month of June last the universal feeling among its members, leaders and privates was that it was useless to hold a Presidential election. Lincoln had the power and would certainly re-elect himself, and there was no hope but in force. The belief was entertained and freely expressed that by a bold, vigorous and concerted movement the three great northwestern States of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio could be seized and held. Missouri could be lifted from her prostrate condition and placed on her feet and this in sixty days would end the war. While everything was moving on smoothly to a supposed successful consummation, the first interruption in the calculation was the postponement of the meeting of the Democratic Convention from the Fourth of July to the 29th of August, but preparations went on and in one of the States the 20th of July was fixed as the day for a movement.

But before the day arrived a general council of the order from different States was called and it was thought the movement on the 20th of July would be premature and the 10th of August was fixed upon for a general uprising. This postponement was insisted upon on the ground that it was necessary to have a series of public meetings to prepare the public mind, and the appointments for public peace meetings were made—one at Peoria, one at Springfield and one at Chicago on the 16th. The first one was at Peoria and to make it a success I agreed that so much money as was necessary would be furnished by me. It was held and was a most decided success. The vast multitudes who were in attendance seemed to be swayed but by one idea—peace. The friends were encouraged and strengthened and seemed anxious for the day when they would do something to hasten them to the great goal of peace. About this time that correspondence between our friends and Horace Greeley made its appearance. Lincoln's manifesto shocked the country. The belief in some way prevailed over the North that the South would agree to a reconstruction and the politicians especially the leading ones conceived the idea that on such an issue Lincoln could be beaten at the ballot box. At all events they argued that the trial of the ballot box should be made before a resort to force—always a dernier resort. The Springfield meeting came off, but it was apparent that the fire exhibited at Peoria had already diminished—the whole tone of the speakers was that the people must rely on the ballot box for redress of grievances. The nerves of the leaders of the order began to relax. About this time a large lot of arms were purchased and sent to Indianapolis which was discovered and some of the leading men were charged with the design to arm the members of the order for treasonable purposes. Treachery showed itself at Louisville. Judge Bullitt and Dr Kalfus were arrested and sent to Memphis.

The day on which the great movement was to be made became known to Mr McDonald candidate for Governor of Indiana and believing that it would mar his prospects for election unless prevented he threatened to expose all the parties engaged unless the project was abandoned. Thus the day passed by and nothing was done. The Chicago Convention came; the crowd was immense; the feeling was unanimous for peace; a general impression prevailed that a reconstruction could be had, and that it was necessary to so far pander to the military feeling as to take General McClellan to secure a certain success. This nomination followed as it was by divers disclosures and arrests of persons, prominent members, totally demoralized the "Sons of Liberty." The feeling with the masses is as strong as ever; they are true, brave, and I believe willing and ready but they have no leaders. The vigilance of the Administration, its large detective force, the large bounties paid for treachery and the respectable men who have yielded to the temptation, added to the large military forces stationed in these States, make organization and preparation almost an impossibility. A large sum of money has been expended in fostering and furthering these operations and it now seems to have been to little profit.

It is probable that a large portion of the Democratic supporters of Horace Greeley are fully aware of this effort to bring about a state of anarchy in the North, for the purpose of enabling the rebels to secure their independence but the facts have not been known to Republicans until lately and it is well for those who are now so anxious to bridge the bloody chasm to fully understand the character and motives of their fellow workmen who are to help build the bridge. Concerning the conspiracy to burn Northern cities Mr Thompson writes as follows

The Presidential election has so demoralized the leaders of the Order of the Sons of Liberty that a new organization under new leaders has become an absolute necessity. This is now going forward with great vigor and success. The new Order is styled the "Order of the Star." There is a general expectation that there will soon be a new draft and the members swear resistance to another draft. It is purely military, wholly independent of politics and politicians. It is given out among the members that Stonewall Jackson is the founder of the Order and the name has its significance from the stars on the collars of Southern officers. There is no ground to doubt that the masses, to a large extent of the North are brave and true and believe Lincoln a tyrant and a usurper.

During my stay in Canada a great amount of property has been destroyed by burning. The information brought me as to the perpetrators is so conflicting and contradictory that I am satisfied that nothing can be certainly known. Should claims be presented at the War office for payment for this kind of work not one dollar should be advanced on any proof adduced until all the parties concerned may have an opportunity for making out and presenting proof. Several parties claim to have done the work at St Louis, New Orleans Louisville Brooklyn Philadelphia and Cairo.

It will be recollected that Thompson was one of the emissaries of the rebel Government with whom Horace Greeley desired to communicate during 1864. They were appointed and furnished with unlimited means to destroy the cities of the North by incendiarism and to create if possible an insurrection in the Northern States, and they were aided and abetted to a certain extent by Northern Democrats. They and their associates at that time are still striving to bridge the bloody chasm by electing the rebel President.

[illegible] the bark [illegible] arrived [illegible] Friday evening [illegible] the Chinese passengers that [illegible] a [illegible] bearing aspect [illegible] length [illegible] without a resort to bloodshed. The [illegible] will be recollected was detained [illegible] beneath [illegible] a certain [illegible] contagious [illegible] was on board. [illegible] Friday evening about ten o'clock a large number of the passengers again commenced a clamor against the delay. The Captain and mates used every persuasive measure in their power to allay the mutiny, but all to no purpose. Finally a number of the passengers scrambled [illegible] the forward part of the vessel and began to draw in the chain to hoist the anchor, declaring that the ship should sail immediately. Finding gentle means ineffectual the captain and the [illegible] and [illegible] mates descended to the cabin and procured their pistols and knives. At one time bloodshed appeared imminent and unavoidable, [illegible] for the coolness, bravery and resolution of the ship's officers serious difficulty would without doubt have resulted.

THE DROWNING.—The dispatches of yesterday gave an account of the drowning of Arthur Charman while bathing in the river at Oregon City on Monday afternoon. We have been furnished the following additional facts. Young Charman in company with several other boys, was swimming near the wh[illegible] below the falls. Charman was an expert swimmer but for sport had put a life preserver around his waist. He had dived several times from the bow of the *E. N. The first indications given that something was wrong was the life preserver, which floated to the surface of the water, but a moment after the disappearance of young Charman. Bubbles of air were also seen to come up just after the life preserver rose. The boys began to feel uneasy and as several minutes passed by and no signs of the return of their companion, they became seriously alarmed and commenced to shout to some men on the wharf. A young man named Harding threw off his coat and sprang into the water. He dove down several times but failed to discover any traces of the body. At the expiration of about twenty minutes he succeeded in bringing young Charman to the surface. The water at the place was about twenty five feet deep. As soon as the body was recovered a physician was summoned and every restorative possible was applied, but the vital spark had fled, and the efforts to resuscitate the body were at length abandoned. Deceased was a bright, intelligent youth of seventeen years, and his untimely end is a sad stroke to his fond parents.

ORGANIZED.—On last Saturday evening Geo. B. Taylor organized Portland Encampment No. 7 Independent Order of the Champions of the Red Cross with thirty three Charter members at Nonpareil Hall in this city. The new Order starts under the most favorable auspices. Mr. Taylor, the Founder and Supreme Organizing officer, has been preparing it for years, lopping off all that is useless and adding many new features that do not belong to other secret organizations. On the death of any member, all others in the State pay one dollar on a week's notice into the treasury which goes to the family or friends of the deceased. There are many other benefits known only to the members. Withing twenty months the Order has obtained a membership of three thousand in California. This summer and winter it will be established in Oregon and Washington Territory and then in the Atlantic States and Europe. The elected officers of Portland Encampment are: C. Beal, Eminent Commander; Mrs. Susan T. W. Stearns, Grand Champion; Miss Annie Stearns, Junior Champion; George W. Brown, Worthy Secretary; Miss Hattie M. Brown, Worthy Treasurer; Chas. Stewart, Captain of the Host. The appointed officers are Rev. W. H. Meisse, W. C.; Mrs. Carlisle, M. C.; Miss Melissa Brown, F. L.; Mr. Kelly, F. G.; D. M. Field, R. S.; Prof. J. L. Dugger, C. R. C.; Miss Alice Morgan, J. M. P.; Edwin Stearns, Vice.

TURNERS' ANNIVERSARY.—The Turners have for a number of years maintained a flourishing organization in this city. Over two years ago, in consequence of the removal of several persons from Portland by death and otherwise, who were prominently identified with that organization, and other causes, the Turners disbanded, and no attempt was made to organize for about a year. One year ago, on the 21st of August, a number of young men, including many who were members of the old society, reorganized. The new society has attained a degree of prosperity never enjoyed by the former organization. The membership now numbers nearly 100, and the society is in good, harmonious, working condition. It is the present intention of the Turners to celebrate with appropriate exercises the coming anniversary of the present organization. The ground selected is Canyon Garden. A good band will discourse music, and many new and attractive features introduced, including numerous games, feats of strength, gymnastics, etc. Dancing and refreshments will constitute prominent features of the occasion. In the evening there will probably be a grand illumination by Chinese lanterns, etc. The occasion promises to be one of pleasure and interest.

FIRE.—About half past one o'clock yesterday afternoon the dreadful cry of "fire" was heard. The bells soon after, by their clamorous ringing communicated the alarm far and near. The fire companies were out in an incredibly short time, and started with all possible speed to the corner of Front and Washington streets where the fire was reported to be. The alarm had emanated from the American Exchange Hotel. A spark from the kitchen flue falling on the dry moss and tinder-like shingles, ignited, and when first discovered was blazing fiercely. Several buckets of water timely applied extinguished every vestige of the flames before the arrival of the engines. Columbian No. 3 and Willamette No. 1 were promptly on the ground within three minutes after the alarm, the former Company getting the first water through their hose. For activity and efficiency this fire department has no superior on the coast.

RABBIT CHASE.—A beautiful brown rabbit escaped yesterday from its place of confinement and came scudding up Front street. The little creature made good time and had many a hard dodge to avoid the feet of horses and passing truck wheels. It stopped at Stark street and cast one timid frightened glance to the right and left and then made a home stretch for a friendly pile of lumber which laid in front of the OREGONIAN office. A shout from a crowd of excited spectators who were watching the movements of the little fellow lent acceleration to its heels. A number of persons with dogs attempted to dislodge the animal from its covert but at last gave it up as a bad job. The owner is requested to remove the rabbit, prove his property, and pay for this notice.

A COLPORTEUR'S LABORS.—An ex Police Judge now a Greeley colporteur, has been very busy circulating Greeley tracts throughout the city. He was unusually active in this work a few days since, when he heard that North Carolina had gone for the piebald ticket. But since news of an opposite character has been received he has quit the street and apparently closed business. It is related that this Greeley colporteur a short time since called at a house in the city, and finding a lady within, asked if he might leave a few tracks (tracts). Certainly, sir, said she, as quick as you please, and just leave them with the heel toward the house too. The colporteur decamped.

TO CHANGE.—The bark Ma[illegible] is quite an old vessel and has changed her condition several times, having at one time been employed in the English Navy as a gunboat. Subsequently she was changed to a barkentine. We learn that the intention of the owner now is to take her to Liverpool and have the necessary alterations made and convert her to a steamer. As the engine formerly used in propelling this vessel is still on board all that is required to transform her from a sailer to a steamer will be to add a propeller, boiler and smoke stack.

FOR THE RAILROAD.—Most of the Chinamen who arrived by the bark Marcia are under contract to work on the Northern Pacific Railroad. They will take their departure in a few days for Kalama, from which point they will be forwarded by rail to the front. There are now employed on that road about 2,000 men and the additional Chinese force will materially increase the number. The report published a short time since to the effect that the white laborers were soon to be discharged and their places supplied with Chinese is, we learn, without foundation.

[illegible] Both the bridges on J street East Portland have been completed. The [illegible] second bridge some grading will have to [illegible] before that street can be opened for travel. A [illegible] of Chinamen are engaged in cutting through an embankment and will probably [illegible] done within two weeks. Funeral processions and travelers bound [illegible] to the Cemetery [illegible] in that direction can move eastward from the ferry landing on a direct line [illegible] the necessity of making so circuitous route as at the present time.

P[illegible] COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of Police Commissioners met last evening at six o'clock. Present Hallock and Risley. The books were examined and found correct. The bill of Chief of Police Lappeus of $271 for boarding city prisoners was examined, approved and ordered paid. A leave of absence was granted Capt. J. R. Wiley. H. P. Collins was appointed as temporary Captain during his absence, and J. K. Mercer appointed as special policemen in place of Collins.

CEASED.—The embankment on Second street East Portland which has sunk into the wet earth where it was thrown for so many feet, has it appears at last reached a bottom. Since the water has about disappeared along that street the embankment has ceased to force its way farther down into the bowels of the earth. Before the low lands are again submerged it is hoped the foundation will have become so firmly settled that the water will have no farther effect.

BARK SPOKEN.—The whaling bark L[illegible], on a cruise from San Francisco, was spoken by the bark M[illegible] over 200 miles off the coast. The L[illegible] had a 180 barrel hump back whale alongside at the time she was spoken and a cargo of a few hundred barrels of oil.

INSANE.—Sheriff McAuliff, of Walla Walla county, arrived from the Dalles last evening, having in charge an insane man named Aefrey from that county. The unfortunate will be placed in the Asylum at Steilacoom, W. T. Cause of insanity unknown.

GUILTY.—Chas. Roebuck was tried yesterday for perjury in the Circuit Court and found guilty by the jury after being out but a short time. Thursday morning has been set by the Court for pronouncing sentence.

ATTENDING PHYSICIAN.—Dr. C. C. Strong of this city has been appointed as physician to the Home of the Friendless under the auspices of the Ladies' Relief Society.

APPOINTED.—W. L. Higgins has been appointed Superintendent of Construction of the United States Postoffice and Custom House in this city, vice E. St. John, resigned.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Common Council this evening.

Fruits and vegetables are cheapening.

Hay, of this year's crop is arriving in abundance.

Mr. Moffett's condition is reported to be much better.

Four sailors deserted the Marcia on Monday night.

Mr. William Thompson of the Salem Mercury is in town.

We are enduring a most insufferning dearth of local news.

Mr. Raveley of the Era has just recovered from a severe illness.

We are in the midst of the dog days. No cases yet of canine insanity.

Plenty of chills and fever reported. Keep good hours and use quinine.

A log chain larceny is the latest sensation in Portland police circles.

Two deaths last week in the city, ~~Light~~ less than the previous week.

Christine Nilsson keeps a boarding house in Omaha. That settles her hash.

Three sailing vessels are now at this port—the Forward, Garibaldi and Manila.

The Goodyear rubber patent expired this year which makes this a good year for rubbers.

There is considerable mortality among children at present—summer complaint, generally.

Since the passage of the new ordinance there has been a decided abatement of the cow nuisance.

The Caruthers suit has attracted some attention in the East, we observe by reference to Eastern papers.

The Justices of the Peace in the several precincts in this city are doing a lively business in civil cases.

We learn that the contract has been let for the grading of another section of the road on the N. P. R. R. line.

An East Portland man drove over a skunk the other evening while out with his family for an airing. In the language of his wife, they "haven't got by that smell yet."

According to the law of Congress, all iron used in the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad must be manufactured from native ores taken from the various mines in the United States.

THE WALLAMET BRIDGE.

A good deal has been said about the proposed bridge across the river at this point, and some controversy has arisen in regard to the possession of the franchise, but nothing very definite has been arrived at until lately. It is now proposed, we are given to understand, that the construction of the bridge shall very shortly be begun and its completion within a twelvemonth is promised by the owners of the franchise. All this is very satisfactory to our citizens, who are anxious for the establishment of more certain and convenient communication with the East bank of the river. There is one point, however, on which we desire to say a few words. The Ordinance by which H. R. Leonard and his associates and assigns, were granted the franchise, limits the location of the western terminus between Salmon street and Clay, or entirely within the Third Ward, which has the smallest population of any. It seems to us that this is not exactly fair to other portions of the city. The construction of the bridge will probably effect the values of the lots and blocks adjacent to its terminus, and to limit the power of realizing this benefit to the property owners of one ward of the city looks like favoritism. As Mr. Leonard and his associates have offered to allow the street designated by the largest subscription of stock to be the western terminus, we suggest that as a matter of justice to all its constituents the Council ought to amend the Ordinance so as to make Oak street the northern limit, and thus give property holders in the First and Second Ward an opportunity to bid for the terminus. The Act of Congress does not limit the location of the bridge on any particular street, and if the Ordinance be amended as we suggest there will be no difficulty in the matter unless the owners of the franchise should object, and we imagine they will not. We hope the Council will act on the matter to night.

AMUSEMENTS.

PARK ENTERTAINMENT.—There will be a grand Arabian Nights' entertainment this evening at the East Portland Park, under the management of Messrs. Waldron & Ladd. A variety of attractive features will be introduced, including acrobatic performances by Montague and Mlle. Garretta, festival, Chinese lantern illuminations, etc.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

REMOVED.—By consulting another column it will be seen that [illegible] White & Co. have removed their place of business and immense stock of goods from their old stand to R. R. Thompson's new brick building, [illegible] and 11 North Front street and [illegible] and 5 North First streets, where they will be happy to see all their old customers.

NEW SHIPPING LINE.—John McCraken & Co. advertise in our columns this morning, The China Line of Vessels. By reference to the notice it will be seen that the bark [illegible], Capt. Noyes, will sail from Portland for Hongkong on or about the 1st of October. She will be followed by the English bark [illegible], Capt. Whyte, which will sail for the same destination on or about the 1st of November. Both of these vessels have superior accommodations for passengers and unsurpassed reputation as freighters. See advertisement.

SEWING MACHINES.—What is home without a mother? So sang the poet years ago. We now say What is home without a sewing machine? Properly three things belong to every well regulated household: a mother, a piano and a sewing machine. The first is a great pleasure, the next is a nice ornament, and the last is an indispensable necessity. Every home should have one. But there are many kinds. Which is preferable? "Why Grover & Baker's, certainly," is what every seamstress of experience will answer. Having settled this question you should call on Shanahan at once and by paying $10 a month you can get a first class machine. Read his advertisement under "New To-day."

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT, Oregon and California R. R. Co. and European and Oregon Land Co., PORTLAND, O[illegible], [illegible] 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privileges of [illegible] Lands in advance of the same being [illegible] all part[illegible] desirous of securing them on the [illegible] terms.

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed to wit:

Pre-emption, [illegible] date, No. —

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have [illegible] upon and improved (description of land) in the [illegible] State of O[illegible], containing — acres, and that I [illegible] a pre-emption right to pu[illegible] said lands at the Company's valuation [illegible] with the [illegible] tion of the [illegible] of said Company [illegible] on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the [illegible] of which I have duly [illegible]

"Resolved, That the [illegible] upon and improving any of the lands of the [illegible] and O[illegible] Land Company, [illegible] the same are [illegible] shall be entitled to the [illegible] chase on the same terms as the [illegible] land for without [illegible] and shall be [illegible] same conditions of pay[illegible] as all other lands [illegible] to the Company, when the right into such [illegible] shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving [illegible] of such settlement, and shall accept the privil[illegible] upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the [illegible] Land Agent, through the [illegible] or [illegible] as may be convenient, to the [illegible] of the party [illegible] ing the pre emption pri[illegible] and if the land is not paid for by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice the Company will be at liberty to [illegible] the land to any other party."

(Name of [illegible])

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the [illegible] will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE EMPTION CERTIFICATE, No. —

This is to certify that [illegible], of [illegible] county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of [illegible]), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of pur[illegible] said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a [illegible] of the Board of Directors of said Company, [illegible] May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to [illegible] this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not [illegible] by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by a competent, [illegible] ed party, under oath, at their actual [illegible] value [illegible] fancy or prospective price on the basis of [illegible] lands in the vicinity, and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal [illegible] ments with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent. per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.

CHINESE ... As the bark ... was laying above Astoria as Friday evening a row occurred on board among the Chinese passengers that for a time assumed a threatening aspect but which at length was quelled without a resort to bloodshed The vessel will be recollected was detained several days by the authorities to ascertain if any contagious disease was on board The Chinese several times became turbulent and desired to have the vessel proceed on to her destination without such vexatious delay By pacific means however they were induced by the officers of the vessel to be quiet and assured that the ship would soon be allowed by the Health Officer to sail for this port On last Friday evening about ten o'clock a large number of the passengers again commenced to clamor against the delay The Captain and mates used every persuasive measure in their power to allay the mutiny, but all to no purpose Finally a number of the passengers scrambled to the forward part of the vessel and began to draw in the chain to hoist the anchor declaring that the ship should sail immediately Finding gentle means ineffectual, the captain and the first and second mates descended to the cabin and procured their pistols and knives They returned with the weapons drawn and cocked and drove the mutineers from the forecastle threatening instant death to any one who refused to obey orders This effectually cowed them They soon went below and gave no more trouble during the remainder of the voyage up the river At one time bloodshed appeared imminent and unavoidable But for the coolness, bravery and resolution of the ship's officers serious difficulty would without doubt, have resulted

THE DROWNING —The dispatches of yesterday gave an account of the drowning of Arthur Charman, while bathing in the river at Oregon City on Monday afternoon We have been furnished the following additional facts Young Charmon, in company with several other boys, was swimming near the wharf, below the falls Charmon was an expert swimmer, but for sport had put a life preserver around his waist He had dived several times from the bow of the E N. Cooke and when about twenty feet from the shore, he suddenly sank from sight His companions at first thought he had gone down for fun, and would rise in a moment The first indications given that something was wrong, was the life preserver, which floated to the surface of the water, but a moment after the disappearance of young Charman Bubbles of air were also seen to come up just after the life-preserver rose The boys began to feel uneasy and as several minutes passed by and no signs of the return of their companion they became seriously alarmed and commenced to shout to some men on the wharf A young man named Harding threw off his coat and sprang into the water He dove down several times but failed to discover any traces of the body At the expiration of about twenty minutes he succeeded in bringing young Charman to the surface The water at the place was about twenty five feet deep As soon as the body was recovered a physician was summoned and every restorative possible was applied, but the vital spark had fled, and the efforts to resuscitate the body were at length abandoned Deceased was a bright, intelligent youth of seventeen years, and his untimely end is a sad stroke to his fond parents

ORGANIZED —On last Saturday evening Geo B Taylor organized Portland Encampment No 7 Independent Order of the Champions of the Red Cross, with thirty three Charter members at Nonpareil Hall in this city The new Order starts under the most favorable auspices Mr Taylor the Founder and Supreme Organizing officer has been preparing it for years, lopping off all that is useless and adding many new features that do not belong to other secret organizations On the death of any member, all others in the State pay one dollar, on a weeks notice into the treasury, which goes to the family or friends of the deceased There are many other benefits known only to the members. Withing twenty months the Order has obtained a membership of three thousand in California This summer and winter it will be established in Oregon and Washington Territory and then in the Atlantic States and Europe The elected officers of Portland Encampment are C Beal, Eminent Commander Mrs Susan T W. Stearns, Grand Champion Miss Annie Stearns, Junior Champion, George W Brown, Worthy Secretary, Miss Hattie M Brown, Worthy Treasurer, Chas Stewart, Captain of the Host. The appointed officers are Rev. W. H Mease, W C, Mrs. Carlisle, H C, Miss Melissa Brown, F L., Mr. Kelly, F G, D M Field, R S, Prof J L Dugger, C R C, Miss Alice Morgan, J M P, Edwin Stearns, Vise.

TURNERS' ANNIVERSARY.—The Turners have for a number of years maintained a flourishing organization in this city Over two years ago, in consequence of the removal of several persons from Portland by death and otherwise, who were prominently identified with that organization, and other causes, the Turners disbanded, and no attempt was made to organize for about a year One year ago, on the 31st of August, a number of young men, including many who were members of the old society, reorganized. The new society has attained a degree of prosperity never enjoyed by the former organization The membership now numbers nearly 140, and the society is in good, harmonious working condition It is the present intention of the Turners to celebrate with appropriate exercises the coming anniversary of the present organization The ground selected is Canyon Garden A good band will discourse music, and many new and attractive features introduced, including numerous games, feats of strength, gymnastics, etc Dancing and refreshments will constitute prominent features of the occasion In the evening there will probably be a grand illumination by Chinese lanterns, etc The occasion promises to be one of pleasure and interest

FIRE —About half past one o'clock yesterday afternoon the dreadful cry of "fire" was heard The bells soon after, by their clamorous ringing communicated the alarm far and near The fire companies were out in an incredibly short time, and started with all possible speed to the corner of Front and Washington streets, where the fire was reported to be The alarm had emanated from the American Exchange Hotel A spark from the kitchen flue falling on the dry moss and tinder like shingles, ignited, and when first discovered was blazing fiercely. Several buckets of water timely applied extinguished every vestige of the flames before the arrival of the engines Columbian No 3 and Willamette No 1 were promptly on the ground, within three minutes after the alarm, the former Company getting the first water through their hose For activity and efficiency this fire department has no superior on this coast

RABBIT CHASE —A beautiful brown rabbit escaped yesterday from its place of confinement and came scudding up Front street The little creature made good time and had many a hard dodge to avoid the feet of horses and passing truck wheels It stopped at Stark street and cast one timid, frightened glance to the right and left and then made a home stretch for a friendly pile of lumber which laid in front of the OREGONIAN office A shout from a crowd of excited spectators who were watching the movements of the little fellow lent acceleration to its heels A number of persons with dogs attempted to dislodge the animal from its covert, but at last gave it up as a bad job The owner is requested to remove the rabbit, prove his property, and pay for this notice

A COLPORTEUR'S LABORS — An ex Police Judge now a Greeley colporteur, has been very busy circulating Greeley tracts throughout the city He was unusually active in this work a few days since, when he heard that North Carolina had gone for the piebald ticket But since news of an opposite character has been received he has quit the street and apparently closed business It is related that this Greeley colporteur a short time since called at a house in the city, and, finding a lady within, asked if he might leave a few 'tracks' (tracts) Certainly, sir said she, as quick as you please, and just leave them with the heel toward the house too The colporteur decamped

TO CHANGE —The bark Manila is quite an old vessel, and has changed her condition several times having at one time been employed in the English Navy as a gunboat Subsequently she was changed to a barkentine We learn that the intention of the owner now is to take her to Liverpool and have the necessary alterations made and re convert her to a steamer As the engine, formerly used in propelling this vessel is still on board, all that is required to transform her from a sailer to a steamer, will be to add a propeller boiler and smoke stack

FOR THE RAILROAD —Most of the Chinamen who arrived by the bark Manila are under contract to work on the Northern Pacific Railroad They will take their departure in a few days for Kalama, from which point they will be forwarded by rail to the 'front' There are now employed on that road about 2 000 men and the additional Chinese force will materially increase the number The report published a short time since to the effect that the white laborers were soon to be discharged and their places supplied with Chinese is we learn without foundation

I STREET BRIDGE —Both the bridges on I street East Portland have been completed Beyond the second bridge some grading will have to be done before that street can be opened for travel A force of Chinamen are engaged in cutting through an embankment and will probably be done within two weeks Funeral processions and travelers having occasion to stop at the Cemetery or pass in that direction can move eastward from the ferry landing on a direct line and not be compelled to travel a circuitous route as at the present time

POLICE COMMISSIONERS —The Board of Police Commissioners met last evening at 8 o clock Present, Hallock and Risley The books were examined and found correct The bill of Chief of Police Lappeus of $274 for boarding city prisoners was examined approved and ordered paid A leave of absence was granted Capt J R Wiley B P Collins was appointed as temporary Captain during his absence and J K Mercer appointed as special policeman in place of Collins

CEASED —The embankment on Second street, East Portland, which has sunk into the wet earth where it was thrown for so many feet has, it appears, at last reached a bottom Since the water has about disappeared along that street the embankment has ceased to force its way farther down into the bowels of the earth Before the low lands are again submerged it is hoped the foundation will have become so firmly settled that the water will have no farther effect

BARK SPOKEN —The whaling bark Louisa on a cruise from San Francisco, was spoken by the bark Manila over 200 miles off the coast The Louisa had a 180 barrel hump back whale alongside at the time she was spoken, and a cargo of a few hundred barrels of oil

INSANE —Sheriff McAuliff, of Walla Walla county, arrived from the Dalles last evening, having in charge an insane man named Ziefrey from that county The unfortunate will be placed in the Asylum at Steilacoom, W T Cause of insanity unknown

GUILTY —Chas Roebuck was tried yesterday for perjury in the Circuit Court and found guilty by the jury after being out but a short time Thursday morning has been set by the Court for pronouncing sentence

ATTENDING PHYSICIAN —Dr C C Strong of this city has been appointed as physician to the Home of the Friendless, under the auspices of the Ladies' Relief Society

APPOINTED —W L Higgins has been appointed Superintendent of Construction of the United States Postoffice and Custom House in this city, vice E St. John, resigned

LOCAL BREVITIES

Common Council this evening

Fruits and vegetables are cheapening

Hay, of this year's crop, is arriving in abundance

Mr Moffett's condition is reported to be much better

Four sailors deserted the Manila on Monday night

Mr William Thompson, of the Salem Mercury is in town

We are enduring a most insufferable dearth of local news

Mr Raveley of the Era has just recovered from a severe illness

We are in the midst of the dog days No cases yet of canine insanity

Plenty of chills and fever reported Keep good hours and use quinine

A log chain larceny is the latest sensation in Portland police circles

Two deaths last week in the city Eight less than the previous week.

Christine Nilsson keeps a boarding house in Omaha That settles her hash

Three sailing vessels are now at this port—the Forward, Garibaldi and Manila.

The Goodyear rubber patent expired this year, which makes this a good year for rubbers

There is considerable mortality among children at present—summer complaint, generally

Since the passage of the new ordinance there has been a decided abatement of the cow nuisance

The Caruthers suit has attracted some attention in the East, we observe by reference to Eastern papers.

The Justices of the Peace in the several precincts in this city are doing a lively business in civil cases

We learn that the contract has been let for the grading of another section of the road on the N P R R line

An East Portland man drove over a skunk the other evening, while out with his family for an airing In the language of his wife, they haven t got by that smell yet "

According to the law of Congress all iron used in the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad must be manufactured from native ores taken from the various mines in the United States

THE WALLAMET BRIDGE

A good deal has been said about the proposed bridge across the river at this point, and some controversy has arisen in regard to the possession of the franchise, but nothing very definite has been arrived at until lately It is now proposed we are given to understand, that the construction of the bridge shall very shortly be begun, and its completion within a twelvemonth is promised by the owners of the franchise All this is very satisfactory to our citizens, who are anxious for the establishment of more certain and convenient communication with the East bank of the river There is one point, however, on which we desire to say a few words The Ordinance by which H R Leonard his associates and assigns, were granted the franchise, limits the location of the western terminus between Salmon street and Clay or entirely within the Third Ward which has the smallest population of any It seems to us that this is not exactly fair to other portions of the city The construction of the bridge will probably affect the values of the lots and blocks adjacent to its terminus, and to limit the power of realizing this benefit to the property owners of one ward of the city looks like favoritism As Mr Leonard and his associates have offered to allow the street designated by the largest subscription of stock to be the western terminus we suggest that as a matter of justice to all its constituents the Council ought to amend the Ordinance so as to make Oak street the northern limit and thus give property holders in the First and Second Wards an opportunity to bid for the terminus The Act of Congress does not limit the location of the bridge on any particular street and if the Ordinance be amended as we suggest there will be no difficulty in the matter unless the owners of the franchise should object and we imagine they will not We hope the Council will act on the matter to night

AMUSEMENTS

PARK ENTERTAINMENT —There will be a grand Arabian Nights' entertainment this evening at the East Portland Park, under the management of Messrs Waldron & Ladd A variety of attractive features will be introduced including acrobatic performances by Montague and M lle Garretta, festival, Chinese lantern illuminations etc

SEWING MACHINES — What is home without a mother So sang the poet years ago We now say, What is home without a sewing machine? Properly three things belong to every well regulated household a mother a piano and a sewing machine The first is a great pleasure the next is a nice ornament, and the last is an indispensable necessity Every home should have one But there are many kinds Which is preferable? "Why Grover & Baker's certainly " is what every seamstress of experience will answer Having settled this question you should call on Shanahan at once, and by paying $10 a month you can get a first class machine Read his advertisement under ' New To day "

What We Need when Debilitated

Appetite and digestion languish at this season At the very time when the body most needs renovation and support The stomach its commissariat department is apt to prove delinquent Under such circumstances the necessity for a wholesome stimulant tonic and corrective is self evident and consequently the demand for that peerless combination of the three required elements Hostetters Stomach Bitters is never more urgent than at mid summer

It is true that a few medical bigots—fossils left over from the dark ages—recommend violent purgation and vapor grueling as a cure for indigestion and its accompanying ills but they make a few proselytes The majority of the community are sane and sane people are aware that a pure and powerful vegetable tonic will ... properties like Hostetter s Bitters is the ... for dyspepsia biliousness constipation nervousness and the consequential damages they inflict

The human intellect unless hopelessly diseased recoils from the egregious humbuggery ... declines to ... weak ... anatomy ... with ... cathartics that ... ill ... through the intestines ... treatment ... modes of treatment are played out

It is clearly understood that ... essential to the renovation of an exhausted ... that you cannot strengthen a man or woman by drenching them with prostrating preparations This is so much of common sense and common sense approves of Hostetter s Bitters as the best article extant for invigorating regulating and purifying the system and defending it against poison in the air we breathe or the water we drink

The German Military Code and Emigration

From the N. Y. Mercantile Journal.

The United States are at present receiving a very large accession of German emigrants, who are fleeing to our shores to escape the censorship which the home government exercises over the freedom of its subjects, as well as to be out of reach of further exactions in respect to army service. The military penal code of Prussia, which is of the most rigorous character, has recently been extended throughout the entire Empire, but as it is entirely at variance with the preconceived ideas of the German people generally, it is encountering considerable opposition. The Liberals are its natural antagonists, and generally decry the system as not only being unnecessarily harsh, but as having a tendency to lower the sense of individual honor in the subject. That portion of the Liberals styling themselves "National Liberals" have, however, already, as on several former occasions, shown the white feather. They have retracted their opposition in order to avoid a conflict with the Government.

The entire system of army discipline, and the demand it makes upon the able-bodied male population of the Empire, is in all respects a direct sequence of legislation enacted in remote times, during a period of society that countenanced serfdom. This plea may have worked well in uncivilized communities, when the majority of the inhabitants were no better than slaves; but it is highly repugnant to that individual sense of right that becomes a free people. Mediæval society encouraged the use of cruel practice in political and military affairs, the idea of punishment usually partaking of the most barbarous penalties, executed in the name of justice and under the semblance of protecting, and at the same time revenging an outraged humanity. Even at this era of the world's progress the great German warrior von Moltke, alluding to the military code, is said to have remarked, in Parliament. "Let us vote for rigorous penalties, for, if our army, as it is said, is the people in arms, of course there must be in it also rogues in arms." This expression of opinion in high quarters shows how indifferently common people are respected by their rulers. It is such a spirit, constantly expressed and disagreeably made manifest in numberless ways, that results in inducing great numbers of Germans to emigrate to this country. They come among us to establish a home and participate in our extended fields of labor. Thousands who came here long since are prosperous, and have materially assisted to build up the industries which have contributed largely to our national wealth. The Germans are a thrifty people, possessed of a great devotion to home and its peaceful surroundings, and while they dearly love liberty, they have but little respect for the pomp and glory of war. Prince Bismarck fully appreciates this trait of his countrymen; but he is too enthusiastic over his plans of making Germany powerful, to heed the growing disaffection. Besides, he evidently considers that a change of regulations in army matters might not work to the best advantage of the imperial cause.

The present immense emigration is greatly deplored by the Government, but in the meantime it hesitates to adopt means to counteract the difficulty, not knowing exactly what to do. Plans for the repression of emigration are seriously entertained, but the Emperor and his counsellors will find, too late, perhaps, that this is dangerous ground to trench on, and that all the edicts instituted by Parliament or proclaimed from the throne will not avail, provided stern measures are adopted in place of conservative laws, which allow individual freedom of action and opinion.

A new Mammoth Cave has been found in Kentucky. It is in Boone county. The entrance to it is only about four feet square, and is much over-grown with bushes. Already the cave has been explored for two miles. Crowds of people are visiting it.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, Aug. 6, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 115¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 86½c buying; 87½ selling.

The bark Manila will commence discharging to-morrow.

The Garibaldi will have quick dispatch for Hongkong, with a cargo of Lumber and Flour.

The bark Rival, from San Francisco, crossed the bar yesterday morning. She was passed, above Oak Point, by the Dixie Thompson, sailing up the river. She brings a large assorted cargo and may be expected to-morrow evening.

No Banking System that was ever devised affords such security to creditors as our National Banking System. The Comptroller of the Currency estimates the losses by failures from June, 1869, to June, 1872, at less than the one hundred and eighty-sixth part of one per cent., which is but five and three-eighths dollars in a million.

A report from San Francisco says: "The necessity of marketing our redundant crops in good season keeps up a lively demand upon the monetary resources of San Francisco, yet without producing anything like a stringency, there being enough and to spare for all probable requirements, especially those of a legitimate character. Additional ease is given by the large semi-annual dividends now being disbursed by our several savings societies; for, although their progress has not been quite as rapid as in foregoing years, yet deposits are steadily accumulating. The lessened rate of interest paid to depositors is the logical result of cheaper money in the market, but is offset by the steadiness with which such funds are employed. The general condition of trade is quite satisfactory, and will become more so as the season advances."

From the Roseburg Plaindealer we have this: "The grain in the Umpqua Valley has all been cut and is now threshed. We learn that the yield is below the average per acre, especially of the spring crops, more than the usual quantity of which was sown in anticipation of the completion of the railroad."

Domestic Produce.

WHEAT—Prices in San Francisco are without special change. The market is scarcely quotable here. No new is yet offered in this market.

FLOUR—There is only a local demand. Standard brands, $5 75; others, $4 50@5 50 per bbl.

OATS—Quotable at about $1 75. Transactions quite limited.

EGGS—Market somewhat weaker. We quote to-day 30@35c.

POTATOES—Oregon of good quality very abundant, and offering at 1c ₩ lb.

WOOL—A report from San Francisco notes some small sales of Oregon fleece at 35@37½c, but otherwise there is nothing to report. The great bulk of stock yet remaining in warehouse is of inferior quality, burry and dirty. This season's business has been very unsatisfactory to the trade, and especially so to the "go-between operators" and speculators, who purchased largely before shearing all they could secure, and at prices far above current market rates.

Real Estate Transactions.

TUESDAY, August 6, 1872.

J. M. Patton and wife to Matilda Carr; west one-half of lot 7 in block 25, Couch's Addition—$1,500.

Geo. Clark and wife and Geo. W. Clark to M. Koshland; a piece of land containing 163 and 32-100 acres, situated in sections 34 and 35, T. 1 N., R. 3 E.—$2,750.

Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, August 6.—Flour—Market quiet at $5@5 87½ for extra, according to brand and quality.

Wheat—The receipts continue large, but most of the lots were purchased prior to arrival. We quote choice at $1 50@1 60.

Barley—New crop sells at $1 10@1 15; old bay brewing is held from $1 90 to $2.

Hay—From $8 to $16.

Potat s—Quotable at $1 50@1 75.

Wool—Boston dates of July 27th note rather more inquiry for domestic, the sales for the week aggregating 425,000 lbs, including thirty thousand lbs California spring at 60@62½, and 40,000 lbs do. at 54@55c. Prices had reached a basis that justified manufacturers in taking hold, and the accumulation of stock through heavy receipts had received a check.

Shipping Intelligence.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President:
ULYSSES S. GRANT,
Of Illinois

For Vice President:
HENRY WILSON,
Of Massachusetts.

For Presidential Electors,
W. D. HARE, of Washington;
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas;
A. B. MEACHAM, of Umatilla.

Election, Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, IN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 5, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its ascendancy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It marked a new policy toward the Indians. The Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion; the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers; immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency it has provided for the National credit, and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during U. S. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail through out the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolists, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the time of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of resorting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where the afflicted will find those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money to seek for new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering with an intolerable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In the world thousands upon thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these terrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured and restored before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. In their fortune and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fœtid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was ever cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written guarantee, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sheepskin certificates, dupe the unwary. One of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them unless you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

SOLICITS ADVERTISEMENTS AND SUBSCRIPtions for the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN and for papers published in California, Oregon and Nevada, Washington, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Arizona and all adjacent Territories; Sandwich Islands, the British Possessions, Mexican Ports, Nicaragua, Panama, Valparaiso, Japan and China; New Zealand and the Australian Colonies, the Atlantic States and Europe.

ADVERTISING

Has created many a new business;
Has enlarged many an old business;
Has revived many a dull business;
Has rescued many a lost business;
Has saved many a failing business;
Has preserved many a large business,
And insures success to any business.

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age: "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the busiest, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS.

KEEP YOUR NAME BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING INSURES A FORTUNE.

IF BUSINESS IS DULL, ADVERTISE.

IF BUSINESS IS BRISK, ADVERTISE.
